

“My Big Sister
told me that I matter”

When Claire met her Big Sister, Michelle, they made an instant connection. Claire has found that she can turn to Michelle whenever she needs extra support and advice. This summer, they made a “Sister Book” together so they can always treasure their relationship. Michelle and Claire continue to meet regularly and plan to be “friends forever.”

Big Brothers Big Sisters of Southwest Washington is just one of the many programs that you will invest in when you give to United Way’s Community Care Fund.
